

Stéphane Fouks

Executive Co-Chairman, Euro RSCG Worldwide

Stéphane Fouks is Executive Co-Chairman of Euro RSCG Worldwide, CEO of Euro RSCG France and CEO of Euro RSCG C&O. He is charged with overseeing Euro RSCG's French operations along with Mercedes Erra.

Stéphane joined Euro RSCG Worldwide in 1988 when he co-founded RSCG Public, a corporate communications consultancy which later became Euro RSCG Institutional, with Stéphane as CEO. In 1999, Euro RSCG Institutional and Hiex Reus Patner merged to form Euro RSCG Corporate. In 2001, he initiated a cross-working relationship between Euro RSCG Corporate and Euro RSCG Omnium, which then became Euro RSCG C&O.

Stéphane is also an international political advisor, who has assisted the Polish President and worked in France for the Socialist Party. In 1983, Stéphane served as an Assistant Deputy to the private secretary of Michel Rocard, France's then-Minister of Agriculture. He later became a producer at Déclic.

Awarded the Ordre National de Chevalier du Mérite, Stéphane is a frequent guest speaker, with engagements including the French American Foundation at Princeton University and the convention of Young Leaders XIV in New York.
